

Benefits of Purchasing an Extended Warranty for Your New Heil Equipment

Consumers who purchase Extended Warranty (HELP) contract on their new Heil System will enjoy "Peace Of Mind." They will not have to worry about unexpected expenses associated with the repair of their HVAC system for the term of their contract.

Peace of Mind – Consumers who purchase Extended Warranty (HELP) contract on their new Heil System will not have to worry about unexpected expenses associated with the repair of their HVAC system for the term of their contract.

* Consumers have comfort knowing that in the event of a covered component failure, major expenses are covered by the Help contract.

* HELP is a factory-supported extended service agreement providing unsurpassed financial security.

* Should a consumer sell their home during the contract term, HELP offers the option of transferring the contract to the new owner for a small processing fee.

Choice – Consumers can choose the length of coverage they want. They can purchase 2-year, 5-year, 7-year or 10 year programs. Renewal programs are also available.

Service – HELP makes it as easy as picking up the phone and reporting the problem to Carolina Comfort, Inc. at (803) 794-5526.

NOTE: The Extended Warranty (HELP) contract MUST be purchased within the first year of equipment start up. For the contract to be valid a Home Service Agreement through Carolina Comfort, Inc. MUST be maintained through the duration of the contract.
